THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

Deputy Director for National Foreign Assessment

March 1979

I signed to Krys & Schlesinger - but below should not - last 77 tabs

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Deputy Director for National Foreign Assessment

SUBJECT : Community Production Report

1. The attached report to the PRC(I) evaluates the Intelligence Community's analytic production in terms of its responsiveness to the NITs during the period July through December 1978. The report has been concurred in by the Directors of INR and DIA.

2. The evaluations for each of the 59 Topics are based on comprehensive listings of published intelligence products that were compiled by NFAC, INR, and DIA. NFAC prepared the summaries for ready reference by the PRC(I) principals. The evaluations are intended to convey in each case a brief picture of what the Community has produced, what remains to be addressed, and the probable focus of our analytic efforts during the coming months.

3. I suggest that as Chairman of the PRC(I) you send each of its members a copy of the report under cover of the attached memorandum.

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Vice President

FROM : Chairman, PRC(I)

SUBJECT : Report on Intelligence Production Responsive to the NITs

1. Attached is a report to the PRC(I) evaluating the Community's analytic production in terms of its responsiveness to the National Intelligence Topics of Current Interest. The report, which covers the period July through December 1978, was prepared by the Deputy Director for National Foreign Assessment and has been coordinated with the Directors of INR and DIA.

2. The individual evaluations for each Topic, summarized for your convenience, are based on a comprehensive review of products published by NFAC, INR, and DIA during the second half of 1978. They are intended to convey a brief picture of what the Community has produced, what remains to be addressed, and the probable focus of our analytic efforts during the coming months.

3. I would welcome any comments you may wish to make on this report at our next meeting.
